DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 19, 2007 has been entered.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
Page 1, Title "Method and Device for Preventing ----from Unintentionally Rolling" should be --Method for Preventing ---- from Unintentionally Rolling--.
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 6-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant amended claims 6, 9, and 12 by adding the limitation "to provide a warning to a driver of the vehicle that a parking brake is not set" which were not disclosed in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 6-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mikami et al. (US 6,039,673), Tsukamoto et al. (US 5,692,990), or Thomas (US 6,411,881).

Mikami et al. disclosed a method of preventing a stationary vehicle from unintentionally rolling comprising the steps of: when the vehicle is stationary and a transmission is not in a neutral position, activating a brake holding mode upon activating a brake pedal to maintain the vehicle stationary, and deactivating the brake holding mode after deactivation of brake pedal only upon sufficient displacement of a clutch whereby the clutch displacement is a determinant of a takeover torque of the clutch, and upon deactivation of the brake pedal, if the clutch does not provide the takeover torque and if the brake pedal is not reactivated, then deactivating the brake holding mode, after a timing delay, for a predetermined time period, see figure 1, col. 1, lines 65-67 and col. 2, lines 1-21.

Tsukamoto et al. disclosed a method of preventing a stationary vehicle from unintentionally rolling comprising the steps of: when the vehicle is stationary and a transmission is not in a neutral position, activating a brake holding mode upon activating a brake pedal to maintain the vehicle stationary, and deactivating the brake holding mode after deactivation of brake pedal only upon sufficient displacement of a clutch whereby the clutch displacement is a determinant of a takeover torque of the clutch, and upon deactivation of the brake pedal, if the clutch does not provide the takeover torque and if the brake pedal is not reactivated, then deactivating the brake holding mode, after a timing delay, for a predetermined time period, see figure 1 and abstract.

Thomas disclosed a method of preventing a stationary vehicle from unintentionally rolling comprising the steps of: when the vehicle is stationary and a transmission is not in a neutral position, activating a brake holding mode upon activating a brake pedal to maintain the vehicle stationary, and deactivating the brake holding mode after deactivation of brake pedal only upon sufficient displacement of a clutch whereby the clutch displacement is a determinant of a takeover torque of the clutch, and upon deactivation of the brake pedal, if the clutch does not provide the takeover torque and if the brake pedal is not reactivated, then deactivating the brake holding mode, after a timing delay, for a predetermined time period, see figures 1-7, col. 5, lines 52-67, col. 6, lines 1-16 and 53-65.
